CORAM : B.H. MARLAPALLE &
J.H. BHATIA, JJ.

DATE : 11TH DECEMBER, 2006.

P.C.

. Heard Mr. Joshi, the learned Counsel for the petitioner. The petitioner came to be appointed as a part time teacher from 15/11/1984 and in all the academic years continued in the said capacity. For the first time, she was appointed as a full time lecturer from 20/6/1997 and she retired on 31/10/2004 on reaching the age of superannuation i.e. 60 years. On her retirement she started making representations regarding the pensionary benefits and also for treating her to be a full time teacher. Such representations regarding her grievance of being continued as a part time teacher for almost 12 years was not raised at any time either prior to 20/6/1997 or till she retired on reaching the age of superannuation. Therefore, this belated petition for seeking a Writ of Mandamus cannot be entertained by us.

2. The petition is rejected.

3. However, if the petitioner submits a representation to the respondent no.2, within a period of 4 weeks from today, this order will not prevent respondent No.2 to consider the same as per law and expeditiously.
